Directions to
The Red Barn Event Centre:

From the 400: Take the Essa Road exit. Turn west on Essa (sign says Essa Road South). Turn right at Ardagh Road. Follow Ardagh to County Road 27. (aka Town Line Road) Property is on the west side of the road down a long driveway. There is a private residence at the front of the property.

From CR 27 South: Follow CR 27 northbound through Thorton. Continue north. After 5 minutes, look for signs on your right that show you have to turn LEFT to stay on CR 27. When you see that sign, turn left, continue on CR 27. When you come down the big hill look for our white flags on the west (left) side of the road. If you get to lights at Ardagh, you've gone too far.

Judges' Profiles

Carolyn J Dockrill is the zone 1 CKC agility council member. She has a retired Scottish Terrier who won his division at the AAC Nationals in 2005. She currently runs Bouviers and also judges AAC agility. An avid CKC Obedience enthusiast, Carolyn has titled 5 Obedience Trial Champion dogs, three of whom are Master OTCH and one recently earned his Grand Master OTCH!

Gayle Avery has been involved with AAC since before it was AAC and was called ADAC. She went to the first judging clinic before there was even a Masters class and the first Masters clinic, attended by only three judges. Gayle led the committee for one of the first AAC rule books and has been a course approver since its inception. Gayle has judged all across Canada, with her first away assignment being in Halifax and has since judged AAC trials across the country through to Vancouver. Gayle has also judged the AAC Regional for Nova Scotia, Quebec, Alberta, the 2007 Regional in Ontario and has judged the Nationals in Montreal. When CKC started doing agility, she became a CKC judge and has since judged CKC trials from Moncton to Vancouver Island and even up to Grande Prairie, Alberta. Three years ago, she was also fortunate enough to be asked to judge in Puerto Rico for FCI. Although the judging is different in these types of agility, she feels the people are the same: warm, friendly and crazy about their dogs and agility.

Are you in the correct Class?

Selected Class: Any dog eligible to enter an agility trial may enter the Selected Class but can not be entered in the Selected Class and Regular Class at the same set of trials. Dogs entering the Selected Class must progress through the various levels beginning with the Novice level. Dogs will jump one jump height lower than its Regular jump height and this class will get 10% more time than the Regular Standard course time.

Novice A is for persons and dogs that have never acquired an agility title in any country or with any organization.

Novice B is for agility instructors and judges, and for dogs that have acquired the Novice title, but have not earned a qualifying score in Agility Intermediate; and for persons who have previously exhibited a dog to an agility title in any agility organization.

Excellent A is for dogs that have acquired the Intermediate title, but have not yet earned the Agility Excellent title in either Standard or JWW.

Excellent B is for dogs that have acquired the Excellent title or the Master Excellent Title. A dog may move up into Excellent B in only the Standard or JWW class that they have earned an Excellent Title in. A dog only needs to be entered in Excellent B for the class that he/she has achieved the excellent title in. ie. A dog can be in Excellent A JWW and Excellent B Standard.

Veteran Class: a dog 7 years of age or older may be entered in the Veterans Class. Once a dog has been designated as a Veteran and entered in this class, the dog cannot revert/transfer back to the Regular or Selected Classes. The dog will retain titles and/or Qualifying scores towards titles accumulated. Dogs will jump one or two jump heights lower than its Regular jump height and this class will get 10% more time than the Regular Standard course time. For full rules on these classes please refer to the Official CKC Agility rule & regulations.

Why have our entry fees went up by 50¢/run?

This money is being donated to the Barrie CIBC Run for the Cure to help find a cure for and improve the lives of women fighting breast cancer.

In October of 2012, the Red Barn Event Centre will donate an amount equal to the total amount raised by PDC exhibitors throughout the year, to the Barrie CIBC Run for the Cure. In doing so, we hope to make a difference!

Should you wish to donate more than 50¢/run, please visit www.runfortheCure.com and donate to the Red Barn Event Centre team.
